Newsletter 20th June 2025

Latest News

We have had a super couple of weeks, lots of learning, school trips, maypole dancing and country dancing. We met our new rabbits for a forest school session and watched Badger Class perform their last assembly as a class.

However, there are still more things ahead. Wednesday 25th June is our annual sports day, which currently has good weather predicted. On Wednesday we meet families on the recreation ground at 12.30 so that we can shelter in the shade of the trees for a picnic lunch. This will fuel and hydrate the children for their afternoon. If you are unable to attend, please let us know and staff will picnic with the children. If you make arrangements with another family for your child to eat with them, also let us know so we can safely hand them over with your permission. Once we have eaten, we will relocate to the school field. Shelter in the school field is minimal so please be mindful and ensure you and all spectators are protected from the sun. Reapplying your child's sun-screen at the picnic is also advisable. The PTA is having a refreshment stand this year. We aim to finish at or before 3pm and will walk any children back that are attending afterschool clubs. At the end we ask parents to come to where the class is sitting, and we will hand them over to you.

Do go online and look at the options for the class photographs you should have received this week.

Have a great weekend.

Values News

This term we think about friendship. We all need to connect with others. Wouldn't the world be a wonderful place if we were all good friends? If we were all kind to our neighbors.

We have been looking at what makes a good friend, as well as reflecting about whether we are a good friend to others.

This week we read a story about whether you have to choose one best friend or whether you can have many friends who you like for different reasons. Maybe it is kind to talk about why someone is a good friend rather than calling one person a better friend than another?

How many good friends do you have?
Are you a good friend to them?

PTA News

Thank you all for supporting our St John's fete stall on Saturday.

Onwards to the ST John's School Fete next on 5th July

Please do help and support the organisers who do need people to volunteer.

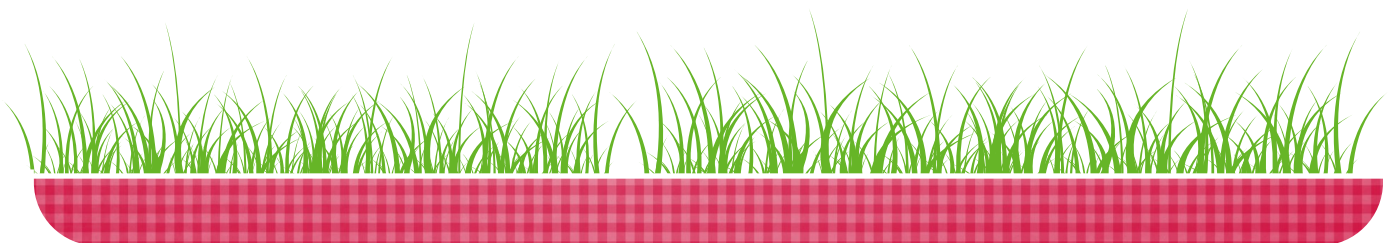

If you haven't signed up yet , do sign up to help.

If you are attending the fete then please do plan to help for half an hour. We cannot host these events if we do not have the volunteers to help run the event.

If you are unable to attend on the day do contact the PTA to ask what can you do to help before the event.

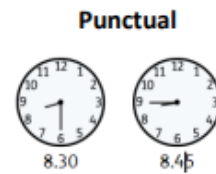

Wouldn't it be great if your children helped, while you run the stall.

It is a great experience for them to volunteer as well.
